A.2	STEPS TO PRACTICE MEDITATION You will also find these times quiet at home, which will help in your meditation. Choose a quiet place. Just like a convenient hour, choose a place where you are not likely to be disturbed. Quiet and peaceful surroundings can make the meditation experience for a beginner more enjoyable and relaxing. Sit in a comfortable posture. Your posture makes a difference too. Keep a relatively empty stomach. A good time to meditate at home- or in office - is before having a meal. Start with warm-ups. Take a few deep breaths. This is again preparation for easy meditation. This helps to steady the rhythm of the breath and leads the mind in to a peaceful meditative state. Keep a gentle smile on your face. You will see the difference! A gentle smile throughout keeps you relaxed, peaceful and enhances your meditation experience. Open your eyes slowly and gently. As you come close to the end of the meditation, don't be in a hurry to open your eyes and start moving about. Open your eyes slowly and gradually and take time to become aware of yourself and your surroundings.	5
